5. Britain's Got Talent

The semi-final dates for BGT clash with the date for the Jubilee Concert with Hepworth Band. The Band have been kept up to date with the issue and are delaying any further arrangements for the concert until our involvement, or otherwise, is clarified by Thames TV. We anticipate learning our fate in the next 10 days.

SF

6. Finance

The Choir's share of the ticket sales at the Christmas concert in Penistone was £725.00.
Pennine Wealth have not paid their fee for the Town Hall Sponsorship package. Probably an oversight and we'll chase this up

Steve Davies

SF.

7. Membership

Rocky and Alvin have completed their Choir application paperwork and, subject to a successful voice test on Tuesday 15th Feb, will become Choir members. Welcome aboard.

Stephen Broadbent

8. Website and Choir Communications

All the new music items have been added to the web site. Old items have been removed.
The impact of Facebook posts by Dave Walker was recognised.
Thanks Dave.

John Middleton/SF

9. Social Events

Dave Thorpe is busy creating the line-up for New Mill's Got Talent on Saturday March 19th.
Pie and peas will be available for a nominal charge of £3.00 per head.
Thanks Dave.

John Clay

10. AOB

- a) The trip to the London Palladium included two ex-members, both welcome. However, we are unsure of the insurance implications should there be an incident involving a non-member. Steve will clarify with the Choir's insurance company.
- b) We have not managed to attract a guest for our Town Hall concert in October and time is dragging on. Paul will liaise with and co-ordinate the various initiatives that are being considered. Choir members who have any good suggestions should contact Paul.

Steve Davies

Paul Morgan
